

CHAPTER 109.

[Published March 11, 1869.]

AN ACT to provide compensation for opening the present session and for indexing and completing the transcribing of the journals of the senate and assembly.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation
to L. B. Hills, chief clerk of senate.

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to L. B. Hills, chief clerk of the senate, for services prior to and at the organization of the senate at the present session, the sum of fifty dollars; for indexing the senate journal of the present session, the sum of two hundred dollars, and for completing the transcribing of the senate journal, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

To E. W. Young,
chief clerk of assembly.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated to E. W. Young, chief clerk of the assembly, for services prior to and at the organization of the present assembly, the sum of fifty dollars; for indexing the assembly journal, the sum of two hundred dollars, and for completing the transcribing of the assembly journal, the sum of two hundred and seventy-five dollars.

Secretary of state to certify.

SECTION 3. No money hereby appropriated shall be drawn from the treasury until the secretary of state shall certify that the duties herein provided for shall have been respectively performed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 8, 1869.
